MATTERS OF PRIVACY

KYB4M will keep your personal details private

Your personal information is very important, and it is our desire that this information is only used in the way that was intended when it was supplied by you.

What information does KYB4M collect?

We only collect the personal information that is required to provide you with material that you request, and/or newsletters that will keep you informed about our organisation.

You may request a copy of your personal information at any time by contacting us by phone, or email, or by writing to the address on the back of this leaflet.

How is my information used?

We use your information for any one, or all, of the following reasons to:

- Forward material to you
- Identify you as a group leader or member of the organisation
- Keep you informed of current events relating to the organisation

Will my details be disclosed to other parties?

We will not disclose any information unless you have consented that we do so, or unless we are required to do so by law.

How is my information updated?

We rely on you to bring us up-to-date with any changes in your information. If you feel that any of the information held is inaccurate or incomplete, please notify us immediately so that we may update that information.

What information do you collect about me on the website?

The website is not used to collect personal information.

An email facility is provided for those requesting further information about us, or for completing sample material offered on the site. When you supply personal information to allow us to respond to your requests, this information is given the same privacy security as all personal data.

Data Quality & Storage

Every effort is made to keep your information up-to-date. Storage is on computer with security procedures protecting unauthorised access.

Will you use a Personal Identifier?

No. Personal identifiers such as Tax File Numbers or Medicare Numbers are not requested as part of our data collection.

Can I complain about a privacy breach?
